ATTACHMENT A*Definitions Applicable to Topics to be Addressed at the Deposition

For purposes of this Attachment, you should use the following definitions for the terms used herein. These definitions of terms are for purposes of discovery only, and not to be construed as limiting or reflecting LPL's position in this case regarding claim construction or any other issue. LPL specifically reserves the right to use different terms, or to assert different meanings, for all purposes in this case (including, for example, with respect to claim construction, infringement analysis, and validity analysis).

1. "ViewSonic," "you," and "your" as used herein, means Defendant ViewSonic Corporation, and all persons or entities acting or purporting to act on your behalf, and any affiliates of ViewSonic, including, but not limited to, entities, divisions, and affiliates located in Taiwan.

2. "Plaintiff" refers to the Plaintiff in the above-captioned lawsuit as well as its affiliates.

3. "The '718 Patent" means United States Patent No. 6,498,718, attached as Exhibit A to the Plaintiff's Complaint in Civil Action No. 04-343-JJF.

4. "The '641 Patent" means United States Patent No. 6,501,641, attached as Exhibit B to the Plaintiff's Complaint in Civil Action No. 04-343-JJF.

5. "Patents-in-Suit" refers either individually or collectively to United States Patent No. 6,498,718 and United States Patent No. 6,501,641.

6. "Affiliate(s)" means any corporation or other entity that controls, is controlled by or is under common control with the identified corporation or entity, including without limitation partnerships, parents, subsidiaries and divisions.

7. "Any" means each and every.

8. The connectives "and," "or," and "and/or" shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of these interrogatories (or, if applicable, document requests) all information that might otherwise be construed to be outside of their scope.

9. "Communication" means, without limitation, every manner or means of statement, utterance, notation, disclaimer, transfer or exchange of information between two or more persons of any nature whatsoever, by or to whomever, whether oral or written or whether face-to-face, by telephone, email, mail, personal delivery or otherwise, including but not limited to, letters, correspondence, conversations, memoranda, dialogue, discussions, meetings, interviews, consultations, agreements and other understandings.

10. "Concern" and "concerning" are used in their broadest sense and embrace all matter relating to, referring to, describing, discussing, evidencing or constituting the referenced subject.

11. "Discuss," "discussing," "relate to" "relating to," "support" or "supporting" means in any way directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, discussing, referring to, regarding, constituting, concerning, about, pertaining to, relating to, reflecting, considering, underlying, modifying, amending, confirming, mentioning, endorsing, evidencing, summarizing, memorializing, describing, discussing, analyzing, evaluating, representing, supporting, qualifying, terminating, revoking, canceling, or negating.

12. "Document" means all types of documents and things embraced within Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34 and includes, without limitation, any writing and each original, or a copy in the absence of the original, and every copy bearing notes or markings not present on the original or copy, of the following items, however produced or reproduced, namely: books, accounting records of any nature whatsoever, agreements, communications, correspondence, facsimiles, telegrams, emails, cable, telexes, memoranda, recordings, studies, summaries or records of telephone conversations, summaries or records of personal conversations or interviews, diaries, letters, forecasts, statistical statements, graphs, laboratory or engineering reports and records, notebooks, charts, plans, sketches, drawings, video tapes, films, slides, information bearing photographic products of any nature whatsoever, photo-records, microfilms, tape recordings, minutes or records of meetings or conferences, expressions or statements of policy, lists of persons attending meetings or conferences, reports or summaries of interviews, reports or summaries of investigations, opinions or reports of consultants, patent studies, or opinions of counsel, records, reports or summaries of negotiations, sales literature of any nature whatsoever, brochures, catalogues, catalogue sheets, pamphlets, periodicals, advertisements, circulars or trade letters, press releases, trade releases, publicity releases, new product releases, reprints, drafts of any documents, working papers, indices, original or preliminary notes, computer printouts, floppy disks, hard drives, CD-ROMs, magnetic tapes and other data compilations from which information can be obtained or translated, if necessary by the defendant through detection devices into reasonably usable form. The term document also refers to any tangible object other than a document as described above, and includes objects of every kind and nature such as, but not limited to, prototypes, models, and specimens.

13. "Flat panel display," also referred to as "flat display panel" means for purposes of this deposition only, a component within the flat panel display device on which an image may be viewed; or the layer of a display device on which the image appears; and any definition adopted by the Court.

14. "Flat panel display device" means for purposes of this deposition only an apparatus having at least a flat display panel and supporting frame(s); or a sandwich of layers including a flat display panel, assembled as a device, along the edges of the layers of the first and second frame; or a sandwich of layers, including a flat display panel, held together by a first frame and a second frame to form a display device; and any definition adopted by the Court.

15. "Housing" means for purposes of this deposition only an outer casing or enclosure; or the case and body of a portable computer; or the display case/case and body of a portable computer; and any definition adopted by the Court.

16. "Identify" used in respect to a company or corporate entity means to set forth:

- (a) the full name of the company;
- (b) the full name of the division or office involved, if applicable; and
- (c) the address of the company and of the division or office involved, if applicable.

17. "Identify" used in respect to a document or thing means:

- (a) to provide a brief description of such document or thing, including date, author, recipients, type, and content or substance;
- (b) to identify the custodian of the document or thing;

(c) to identify the place where the document or thing may be inspected; and

(d) if a copy of the document has been supplied to Plaintiff, to so state and specifically identify the copy supplied by reference to production numbers or other identifying information.

18. "Identify" used with respect to a natural person means to state:

- (a) the full name;
- (b) the present or last known business and residence addresses;
- (c) the last known employer or job affiliation; and
- (d) the last known occupation and business position or title held.

As to present or former government employees, state the government employer for each position held, the starting and ending date for each position, and the job description and title for each position held. Also, state the person's responsibilities with regard to any contract specified in the interrogatory.

19. "Import" or "importation" has the same meaning as in 35 U.S.C. § 271 and applicable case law.

20. "Make" has the same meaning as in 35 U.S.C. § 271 and applicable case law.

21. "Mounting System" means any grouping and/or categorization of any structure, device and/or method used to affix, assemble or secure a flat display panel, e.g., LCD, PDP, FED, and/or a flat panel display device within, on or to another structure including, without limitation, a housing.

22. “Mounting Technology” means any structure, device and/or method used to affix, assemble or secure a flat display panel, e.g., LCD, PDP, FED and/or a flat panel display device within, on or to another structure including, without limitation, a housing.

23. “Offer to sell” has the same meaning as in 35 U.S.C. § 271 and applicable case law.

24. “Person” means any natural person, firm, association, partnership, corporation, or other form of legal entity.

25. “Prior art” has the same meaning as defined in U.S. patent law, including in 35 U.S.C. §§ 102 and 103, and applicable case law.

26. “Sell” or “sale” has the same meaning as in 35 U.S.C. § 271 and applicable case law.

27. “Type of visual display product” means the name or alpha numeric identifier by which a given visual display product can be identified. The ViewSonic VX900 is an example of a type of ViewSonic visual display product.

28. “Visual display product” means any flat panel computer monitor, flat panel television, and/or laptop computer that uses, contains or incorporates without limitation, one or more LCDs, PDPs and/or FEDs. This includes all such products, regardless of brand name, and thus includes, but is not limited to, ViewSonic brand products.

29. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa.

Topics to be Addressed at the Deposition

1. The type and/or classification of mounting technology or mounting system employed or mounting system used in each of the visual display products you identified in Response to LPL's Request for Interrogatory Nos. 2 and 3.
